

What does it cost?

$2 per meeting to cover the cost of stationery items associated with your membership plus enough to pay for your own breakfast

If you decide to become a member:

$150 for your annual membership, which goes straight to the Central Coast Community Chest – so you will be putting something back into the local community